

NATIONAL REPERTORY

orchestra

Summer 2013
June 15 – August 2

Passion and Excellence

The NRO's 54 years of continuous operation are a tribute to the standards of excellence and the passionate support of its donors, audience and sponsors.

What We Do

- We attract the best young musicians from around the country and prepare them for productive and rewarding careers in Music and Arts Administration
- We deliver top-quality, professional performances for Breckenridge audiences

Our Musical Leadership

Carl Topilow

In his 35th year as Music Director of the National Repertory Orchestra

He is currently in his 31st year as conductor of the Cleveland Institute of Music Orchestras

Founder and Conductor of the Cleveland Pops Orchestra, in its 16th year.

The 2012 Guest Conductor Lineup

James Judd

- Served as Music Director of the Florida Philharmonic Orchestra for 14 years
- Served as Music Director of the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra 8 years
- Has conducted orchestras in Berlin, Rotterdam, Salzburg , Vienna, London, Tokyo, Dallas, Baltimore Utah and several other orchestra around the world.

The 2012 Guest Conductor Lineup

Mei-Ann Chen

- Currently Music Director of the Memphis Symphony Orchestra and the Chicago Sinfonietta
- The first woman to win the Malko Competition and Concordia Fellowship
- Has conducted orchestra through the US as well as Mexico, Netherlands, Taiwan, Scotland, Sweden and others.

Worldwide engagements include numerous orchestras in Europe, South America, Israel, Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong and Japan
Worldwide engagements include numerous orchestras in Europe, South America, Israel, Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong and Japan
engagements include numerous orchestras in Europe, South America, Israel, Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong and Japan

The 2012 Guest Conductor Lineup

Carl St. Clair

- Music Director of the Pacific Symphony for more than two decades
- Has conducted the Boston Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic, New York Philharmonic, The Philadelphia Orchestra, and others.
- Worldwide engagements include Europe, South Africa, Israel, Australia, New Zealand Hong Kong and Japan

The 2012 Guest Conductor Lineup

Danail Rachev

- Music Director of the Eugene Symphony
- Born in Bulgaria
- Has worked with England's Bournemouth Symphony, London Philharmonic, Turkey's Presidential Symphony, Yomiuri Nippon Symphony Orchestra, among others.

The 2013 Season

- 17 Concerts at the Riverwalk Center
- Breckenridge FREE Community Concert on Wednesday, June 19th
- Music Education & Children's Concert
- 4th of July Concert
- Chamber Performances and Community Outreach around Breckenridge
- Celebrating the 20th Anniversary of the Riverwalk Center

Thank you to the Town of Breckenridge for your support of the National Repertory Orchestra

