

Online Forum Guidelines:

Swim Seal Beach is an online forum where Seal Beach residents, those working in Seal Beach and pool users alike may share opinions, engage in discussion, and even vote on ideas that they feel are best in our effort to create a new aquatics center. We want to hear from everyone and have your active, frequent participation, thoughts, ideas, and even your criticism. In that spirit, we ask that you contribute respectful and polite comments and content, and agree to follow a few ground rules. We reserve the right to remove any content or ban a participant. Please report content that you believe violates these ground rules to Tsilah Burman, Site Administrator at tburman@communitychangepartners.com. In the event that content or comments are removed, they remain a part of public record; however, no one will be able to see or respond to them on this site.

Your online name is displayed as your first name and last initial. You may not represent yourself as another person, or imply any connection with any person or organization with which you are not in fact associated.

Be courteous, respectful and appropriate. You agree that your comments, ideas and feedback will be constructive and will not sharply criticize or attack another participant or their ideas, avoiding the use of all capital, all bold or all italic letters, or objectionable avatars or excessive links to external websites. Further, you agree to refrain from posting or uploading anything obscene, hateful, blasphemous or derogatory, or anything that is defamatory or libelous or invades another person's privacy or proprietary rights. If you need to ask yourself whether it's appropriate, it's probably not.

No spamming or intentional disruptions. You agree not to deliberately disrupt discussions with repetitive messages, meaningless messages or "spam." Further, you will not upload, post or submit anything that contains any viruses, cancel bots, Trojan horses, harmful code, or other computer software or programs designed to interrupt another person's participation in, or enjoyment of this online forum.
